* Amusements &

Of very much interest to local music lovers will be the announcement of the concert and elocutionary entertainment to be given at the Dorris theater on next Wednesday evening by Mrs. Viv ian Palmer Hamilton, Mr. William Edson Strowbridge and Mr. Thomas Barnes. There is no room for dispute of the fact that these three artists compose the best local talent in their respective styles of entertainment. There is little need of commendation for either of the three. Mrs. Hamilton was a pupil of Darby, at St. Louis, until she came to Phoenix last summer She was also a proteg- of Anthur Robyn and was the leading soprano in the chorus chor at the Church of the Holy Communion there, under the instruction of Robyn. During her last two years in 3t. Louis she was promiment in concert work and the recipient of many flattering offers from opera companies. She has frequently been heard in the Phoenix churches, and all who have heard her voice in sacred songs will be glad of the opportunity to hear her in secular music.

Mr. Strowbridge has no rival for the leadership of local planists and, indeed, it is doubtful if a more pleasing planoforte performer is to be found on the As an elocutionist Mr. darnes first appearance on a local stage is sure to be very gratifying to his friends. As a whole the event promises to be a very important one, both from an artistic and a social point of

RAVAGES OF WHITE ANTS.

An African missionary writes an account of the ravages of the white ants in Rhodesia. It is no uncommon thing for the colonists returning from a day's work to find the coat he left hanging on ing pain for ten days, which was relievs nail of the cottage wall, or the book on the table, entirely destroyed by these marauders. On awakening in the morning, he says, you are often astonshed by seeing in the dim light a cone shaped object rising from the brick floor a short distance from your ben. with two holes in the top like the craters of a minature volcano. Upon closer examination you discover that the holes have just the size and shape as the inside of your boots, which you incautiously left on the floor the night before. They have given form and proportion to an ant heap, and nothing Estate of M. T. Walsh, Deceased. is left of them but the nails, the brass eyelets and perhaps a part of the heels.
